THE DIFFERENCE

The only apparent difference between collars made of Linen and collars made of cotton is the "Triangle Linen" mark and that's worth looking for. To protect you against inferior cotton collars, the Government says that only linen collars can be stamped "Linen."

So when you buy collars be sure the words "Triangle Linen" are stamped on them-then you get what you pay for. Triangle Collars are guaranteed Linen. They're 4-ply, too, and their three-thread cyclet button-holes do not tear like the slit button holes-in most 15c. collars. You can get any style you like in Triangle Linen Collars in quarter sizes, and the price is 15c. (2 for 25c.) Most dealers have a full assortment of popular styles. If yours hasn't the style you want, write us and we'll see that you get it. Van Zandt, Jacobs & Co., Troy, N.Y.

CLEARANCE OF WINTER GOODS NOW - just when Winter Goods are most needed. The clearances are general. Combined with several great January sales, they present the BEST PURCHASING OPPOR-TUNITIES OF THE SEASON.

Basement Dry Goods Sales. In yesterday's announcement concerning the sales in this Basement Dry Goods section the statement was made inadvertently that over forty departments are represented. While that has been true of this section, it is not true now. Fewer departments are represented during the sales, but by larger assortments.

Continuing The Half Price Sale

Sale lines originally embraced over $200,000 worth of Coats, Muffs and Neckpieces. While more than half of the Furs have been sold, the stocks remaining embrace practically the same varieties presented earlier. In other words, the fine prizes that went to early buyers can be duplicated now.

Prizes in the truest sense, because they are offered at HALF THE PRICES THEY WOULD HAVE COM-MANDED UNDER NORMAL WINTER WEATHER CONDITIONS.
